

Antique Ships Log, English, Brass, Maritime, Mileage Log, Desk Ornament, 1920

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6334

This is an antique ship's log. An English, brass maritime bulkhead mileage log or desk ornament, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- A fine example of Walker's patented ship's logs
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Polished brass bezel beams in typical golden hues
- Original glass porthole in good order
- Three twist-off locking nuts hold the bezel tightly against the frame
- Aids access to the dial for self-adjustment
- Subsidiary dials add further visual interest
- Pleasingly heavy at 3.88kg (8.55 lb)
- Maker's mark to dial for Thomas Walker & Son of Birmingham
- Dials log nautical miles in single, double and triple units
- Slender needles can be operated manually, working anti-clockwise

Search London Fine for #18.6334 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 19.5cm (7.75")

Max Depth: 7.5cm (3")

Max Height: 19.5cm (7.75")

Face Diameter Width: 12cm (4.75")

Find out more about Thomas Walker & Son of Birmingham here...

