

Large Antique Specimen Cabinet, English, Chest of Drawers, Shop, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6391

This is a large antique specimen cabinet. An English, mahogany and boxwood chest of drawers ideal for shop or retail use, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Elegant cabinet from the Edwardian period
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select mahogany in deep caramel hues with fine grain interest
- Resplendent in a wax polish finish
- A suite of seven graduated sets of drawers (3 of 1 depth and 2 pairs)
- Ebonised pulls provide an eye-catching contrast
- Brass label plates in good order
- Each drawer finished with original, textile lining and quality dovetail joints
- Top features wonderful grain with discrete boxwood inlay
- Boxwood inlay decorates the cabinet sides
- 360-degree appeal with a pair of field panels to the rear with further inlay

Search London Fine for #18.6391 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 65cm (25.5")

Max Depth: 52cm (20.5")

Max Height: 88cm (34.75")

Drawer Width: 50cm (19.75")

Drawer Depth: 36cm (14.25")

Drawer Heights: 5.5cm (2.25") 8cm (3.25") 10cm (4")

