

Vintage Coronation Stool, English, Footstool, Maple and Co, London, George VI

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6402

This is a vintage coronation stool. An English, limed oak footstool by Maple and Co of London. Crafted to commemorate the ascension of George VI to the British throne, dating to 1937.

- A fine commemorative with historic and aesthetic appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Limed oak shows distinctive grain interest
- Quality upholstery in good order
- HRH George VI's coronation took place on May 12th, 1937 at Westminster Abbey
- Rich, royal blue velour cushion pad
- Eye-catching golden brocade trim
- Marked to the underside with Maple & Co, London - the renowned furniture makers
- Also finished with the Royal crown emblem and GR VI - Coronation inscription
- Raised upon four, square section legs and terminating in tapered pad feet

Search London Fine for #18.6402 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 46cm (18")
Max Depth: 32cm (12.5")
Max Height: 48cm (19")

