

Antique Side Table, Scottish, Oak, Console, Bobbin Turned, Victorian, Circa 1870

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6385

This is an antique side table. A Scottish, oak console table with bobbin turned legs, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870.

- Gothic revival taste with wonderful carved decoration
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select oak resplendent in dark hues and fine grain interest
- Good consistent colour throughout to the wax polish finish
- Elaborate foliate carving to the low up stand
- Raised counter with deep, tiered edge
- Wisps of medullary rays beam from the generously sized counter top
- Upper apron with appealing, naive chip decoration in keeping with the revival taste
- Front apron finished with a repetition of the hand-carved acanthus motif
- Leading edge of apron finished with fine arcading
- Set upon stout, bobbin turned front legs and raised on bun feet
