

Antique Shipwright's Tool Chest, English, Maritime, Craftsman, Trunk, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6526

This is an antique shipwright's tool chest. An English, pine maritime craftsman's trunk, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870.

- A splendid antique chest
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select pine shows fine grain interest
- Rich caramel hues throughout
- Stout lid with internal bracing
- Opens smoothly on internal brass hinges
- Held in place with a bright brass chain link stay
- Revealing an internal candle box with opening lid
- Dressed with an oval escutcheon over an inset iron lock – key absent
- Iron braced corners with exposed dovetail joints
- Original rope handles mounted within large pine keepers

Search London Fine for #18.6526 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 102.5cm (40.25")

Max Depth: 49cm (19.25")

Max Height: 45.5cm (18")

