

Antique Equestrian Riding Crop, Figurehead, English, Beech, Leather, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6531

This is an antique equestrian riding crop with Mallard figurehead. An English, beech and leather crop, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- A charming example of antique horse tack
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Lithe beech crop with excellent flexibility
 - Wonderful, carved horn Mallard head with bright, amber coloured eyes and red crown finish
- Leather crop end with tight, twine bounding

This is a fascinating antique riding crop, ideal for equine use or display. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home or stable.

Search London Fine for #18.6531 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 8cm (3.25")

Max Depth: 2.5cm (1")

Max Height: 55cm (21.75")

