

Vintage Art Deco Travel Clock, Franco-Swiss, 8 Day, Jaeger LeCoultre, Asprey

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6536

This is a vintage Art Deco travel clock. A Franco-Swiss leather bound timepiece with eight day movement by the renowned Jaeger LeCoultre for Asprey of London, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Appealing luxury clock presented as a repair project
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Rich caramel leather with wonderful colouration
- Polished white metal case shines with no tarnishing
- Folding case ideal for travelling – rotating front cover forms a support stand
- Eye-catching diamond pattern leather
- Inset hinge stamped with 'Made In France, Patent Applied For'
- Rear of case engraved with the serial number 9521-56 H
- Bright Art Deco face in desirable original condition
- Bold numerals finished in pastel lemon on a cream ground, with delicate hands
- Face bears the details of LeCoultre, Asprey, Eight Days and Swiss

Search London Fine for #18.6536 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Display Width: 6.5cm (2.5")
- Display Depth: 9.5cm (3.75")
- Display Height: 9.5cm (3.75")
- Closed Width: 10cm (4")
- Closed Depth: 2.5cm (1")
- Closed Height: 6.5cm (2.5")

