

Antique Pier Mirror, English, Gilt Gesso, Classical Taste, Regency, Circa 1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6455

This is an antique pier glass mirror. An English, gilt gesso mirror in Classical taste, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Bold frame with overt Classical influence
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Gilt Gesso in good order with rich hues
- Later mirror plate in good condition with minimal foxing
- Broad pilasters to each side with tiered cornice above
- Wide, inset frieze depicts a mother and children against a white painted ground
- Finished with hand-applied, bright golden tones to frieze
- Lion head masks to the capitol picked out with further gold paint work
 - Acanthus bulbs adorn the terminus of each pilaster with an adjoining pair to the centres
 - Dressed with a small eye loop for wall mounting

Search London Fine for #18.6455 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 60cm (23.5")
- Max Depth: 11.5cm (4.5")
- Max Height: 102.5cm (40.25")
- Mirror Plate Width: 44.5cm (17.5")
- Mirror Plate Height: 77.5cm (30.5")

