

Antique Victorian Urli, Indian, Bronze, Temple Bowl, 19th Century, Circa 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6570

This is an antique Victorian urli. An Indian, bronze temple or cooking bowl, dating to the mid 19th century, circa 1850.

- Wonderful example of 19th century Indian cookware
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Heavy bronze form with deep, tapered bowl
- Pleasingly weathered bowl with a lighter, golden hue interior
- Decorated with a pair of loop handles over heart motif
- Marked with hand-formed characters to the outside edge

This is a fascinating antique urli, often used in the Kerala region of India and now well suited for large floral displays or decorative placement. Delivered polished and ready for the home.
