

Antique Horticultural Prize Plaque, Bronze, Hamo Thornycroft, Toogood, 1920

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6609

This is an antique horticultural prize plaque. An English, bronze plate by the sculptor Hamo Thornycroft and presented by Toogood and Sons, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Wonderful antique prize
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Bronze shows appealing golden tones
- Signed and dated to 1921
- Relief female figure holding a small tree and framed by horticultural motif
- Scrolled banner engraved with 'Open Championship Horticultural Prize'
- Further engraved for Toogood And Sons Ltd, Seedsmen to H.M. The King
- Signed by the sculptor Hamo Thornycroft, RA

This antique horticultural prize is a fascinating early 20th century piece, with good provenance from association with Thornycroft and Toogood and Sons. Delivered polished and ready for display.

Search London Fine for #18.6609, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 17cm (6.75")

Max Depth: 0.5cm (.25")

Max Height: 28.5cm (11.25")