

Antique Pair of Framed Certificates, French, Award of Honour, WW1, Circa 1920

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6693

This is an antique pair of framed certificates. A French, large award of posthumous honour from WW1 and a smaller plaque of good conduct, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Rare, French antique certificates
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Printed and hand-finished on paper
- The pair framed for wall mounting
- The large certificate awarded having fallen in service during the First World War
- Titled "Aux Heros Combattant Pour La Patrie. Guerre 1914-1917"
- Citation A L'Ordre Du Jour issued to a Monsieur Theodore Gadel
- Detailed lithograph of a battlefield being overlooked by the archetypal Marianne and an angel
- The smaller framed piece dated to 1911
- Titled "Certificat De Bonne Conduite"
- French Army certificate, awarded to a member of the 1st Regiment de Chasseur

Search London Fine for #18.6693, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Honour Width: 69cm (27.25")
- Honour Depth: 4cm (1.5")
- Honour Height: 54.5cm (21.5")
- Plaque Width: 22cm (8.75")
- Plaque Depth: 1.5cm (.5")
- Plaque Height: 32.5cm (12.75")

LIST PRICE

£685.00

