

Tall, Antique Corner Cabinet, English, Oak, Georgian, Pot Cupboard, Circa 1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6537

This is a tall antique corner cabinet. An English, oak, Georgian pot cupboard, dating to the late 18th century, circa 1800.

- Superb late Georgian craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select oak shows fine grain interest
- Dark caramel hues add to the attractive appearance
- Tiered crown moulding stands proudly above the cabinet
- Field panel doors with carved shield shape over smaller square panels
- Dressed with shaped iron lock escutcheons and brass butterfly 'H' hinges
- Working inset locks to both cabinets – keys present
- Oak stocks to base show wisps of medullary rays at the doors
- Serpentine fronted shelves arranged as a pair over a single lower
- The cabinet raised upon shaped bracket feet

Search London Fine for #18.6537 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 99.5cm (39.25")

Max Depth: 52cm (20.5")

Max Height: 176.5cm (69.5")

