

Antique Farmhouse Rocking Chair, English, Elm, Beech, Seat, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6740

This is an antique farmhouse rocking chair. An English, elm and beech seat, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Superb rural craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select elm and beech shows fine grain interest
- Attractive dark caramel hues to the wax polish finish
- Shaped top rail with carved arcading
- Gently curved lathes an eye-catching element
- Short, turned balusters support each arm
- The carved saddle seat slab adds comfort
- Raised upon pleasingly turned legs
- United by a h-stretcher with tapered spindles
- The long, arched rocking feet provide a relaxing motion

Search London Fine for #18.6740 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 58.5cm (23")
Max Depth: 68cm (26.75")
Max Height: 106cm (41.75")
Seat Width: 38cm (15")
Seat Depth: 40.5cm (16")
Seat Height: 39.5cm (15.5")

