

Antique Windsor Chair, British, Elm, Ash, Elbow, Armchair, Victorian, Circa 1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6739

This is an antique Windsor chair. A British, elm and ash elbow or armchair, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1860.

- Country house appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Elm and ash show fine grain interest
- Appealing in colour with rich caramel hues
- The tall, shaped top rail benefits from a gently chamfered rear edge
- A pierced, shaped back splat sits between slender spindles
- Cow horn arms supported by turned balusters
- Traditional, carved saddle seat for comfort
- The seat base stamped with the Isle of Man triskelion
- Raised upon turned legs, with canted angles to the rear
- United by a H-stretcher with turned spindles
