

Antique Shipwright's Chest, English, Craftsman's Tool Trunk, Victorian, 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6704

This is an antique shipwright's chest. An English, pine craftsman's tool trunk, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Pleasingly aged maritime chest
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Stained pine shows copious patination
- Period details add to the charm
- Stout lid opens smoothly, coming to rest on a rear brace
- Appealing, natural interior beams in saffron yellow hues
- Dressed with a brass clasp to the centre
- Hand painted type reads 'J. Rees, Shipwt'
- The lid bears the monogram JR in brass effect lettering
- Broad pine keeps house a pair of rope handles
- Visible dovetail joint construction shows the durable, lasting nature

Search London Fine for #18.6704 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 67cm (26.5")

Max Depth: 32.5cm (12.75")

Max Height: 29.5cm (11.5")

