

Antique Tea Cabinet, English, Oak, Spice, Apothecary Case, Georgian, Circa 1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6775

This is an antique tea cabinet. An English, oak spice or apothecary case, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800.

- Pleasingly heavy Georgian piece
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Dark English oak with fine grain interest
- Wisps of medullary rays shine through the wax polish finish
- Field panel front door with carved patera
- Unusual left-hand opening
- Dressed with a shaped brass escutcheon — lock absent
- The door secured by an iron hook and eye clasp
- A suite of nine drawers, the lowest of which being a wide, single drawer
- Each drawer finished with a small brass pull
- Raised upon a continuous plinth base

Search London Fine for #18.6775 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 42.5cm (16.75")

Max Depth: 19.5cm (7.75")

Max Height: 45cm (17.75")

