

Antique Richter's Anchor Box, German, Stone, Anker Baukasten, Number 15, Set

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6870

This is an antique Richter's Anchor Box. A German, stone Anker Baukasten No. 15 or construction set, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Highly collectible German construction set from Friedrich Richter
- Displays a desirable aged patina – lovingly play worn
- Sought after stone pieces, with few, minor chips to corners
- Aged box with fine paper lithography to both sides
- This 'grosse kaliber' set comprises 296 pieces at 25mm scale
 - Pieces imitate the red brick, limestone and blue slate of contemporary European architecture
 - Create a wide range of architectural styles including Baroque influenced buildings
 - Several instruction manuals included to help create fantastic scenes

This is a wonderful, lovingly played with antique Richter's Anchor Box. In sought after stone, this number 15 set offers nearly 300 pieces and hours of potential for entertainment for children and adults alike. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #18.6870, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 40cm (15.75")

Max Depth: 30cm (11.75")

Max Height: 8.5cm (3.25")

Pieces: 296

Instruction Booklets: 9

LIST PRICE

£1,695.00

