

Antique Writing Slope, English, Oak, Travelling Correspondence Box, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6823

This is an antique writing slope. An English, oak travelling correspondence box, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Quality writing slope encased in superb stocks of oak
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select oak shows fine grain interest and medullary rays
- Brass and leather fittings of the highest order
- Opening from an attractive box into a generously sized correspondence slope
- The leather dressed lid interior replete with a set of writing tools
- Five-compartment letter rack sits alongside three small drawers with silvered pulls
- Tooled leather skiver in two parts, the upper opening for further storage
- Pair of Gothic revival taste drop handles to each side, over shaped backs
- Circular, working Brahma security lock to the front – key present
- Two glass ink wells situated within a fold-out tray with hidden compartment

Search London Fine for #18.6823 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 43cm (17")
 Max Depth: 25cm (9.75")
 Max Height: 29.5cm (11.5")
 Extended Width: 43cm (17")
 Extended Depth: 69cm (27.25")
 Extended Height: 50.5cm (20")

