

Antique George III Corner Cupboard, English, Oak, Wall Cabinet, Georgian, C.1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6855

This is an antique George III corner cupboard. An English, oak wall cabinet, dating to the Georgian period of the late 18th century, circa 1800.

- A fine example of Georgian craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select oak shows fine grain interest
- Presenting wisps of medullary rays beneath the wax polish finish
- The elegant crown decorated with a quality dentil moulding
- Field panel door opening smoothly upon brass butterfly hinges
- Dressed with a pierced, shaped escutcheon with working inset lock – key present
- Small circular brass pull with fine beaded detail around a central flower motif
- Inside, a suite of three serpentine shelves
- Later, bright interior benefiting from its light cream shade

Search London Fine for #18.6855, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 65.5cm (25.75")

Max Depth: 33.5cm (13.25")

Max Height: 92.5cm (36.5")

