

Antique Chess Table, English, Burr Walnut, Mahogany, Games, Side, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6842

This is an antique chess table. An English, burr walnut over mahogany games or side table, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Pleasing oval gaming table
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Striking burr walnut with fine grain interest
- Rich caramel hues to the wax polish finish
- Gaming surface presented with bleached and ebonised birch chess squares
- The chessboard is 30.5cm (12") wide sat comfortably within an oval tabletop
- The whole supported with a slender mahogany column
- Elegantly carved, tri-form cabriole legs with quality leaf detail to the knee and toe

This is an appealing antique chess table with quality burr walnut and birch gaming surface. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the master and novice alike.

Search London Fine for #18.6842, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 42cm (16.5")

Max Depth: 57.5cm (22.75")

Max Height: 71cm (28")

Chess Board Width: 30.5cm (12")

Chess Board Depth: 30.5cm (12")

