

Antique Haberdashery Cabinet, Mahogany, Glass, Museum Showcase, Edwardian, 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6461

This is an antique haberdashery cabinet. An English, mahogany and glass museum-quality show case, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Superb, bright display case
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Rich mahogany frame with delightfully slim pillars
- Quality plate glass in good order throughout
- Brass measuring stick to the top frame marked for 1 yard in 1 inch increments (36" or 91.5cm)
- Sliding glass rear doors aide access to the shelves within
- The pair of adjustable glass shelves sit upon elegant, Art Deco bracket arms
- The upper edge dressed in bronzed trim to add a touch of brightwork
- Raised upon a broad plinth base, decorated with beaded trim
- Standing upon attractive, squat spade feet

Search London Fine for #18.6461 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 179.5cm (70.75")

Max Depth: 62.5cm (24.5")

Max Height: 92.5cm (36.5")

