

Antique Farrier's Chest, English, Pine, Iron, Tool Trunk, Edwardian, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6916

This is an antique farrier's chest. An English, pine and iron bound tool trunk, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Attractive antique chest with period appeal - ideal as a coffee table
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Pine stocks presented in a weathered ebonised finish
- Iron bound corners adds appreciable strength and durability
- The stout lid dressed with an engraved brass plate and reads '1918 N.14. 199'
- Secured by way of long iron clasp, the lid opens to reveal rich caramel hues
- Lid interior stamped with the crown mark 'A.M. 1936'
- Opens smoothly on long sliding hinge arm
- AM painted in cursive stencil to the front fascia
- Hand-painted 195 in cream is an eye-catching touch
- Trunk interior features a selection of trays for tools or personal effects

Search London Fine for #18.6916 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 64cm (25.25")

Max Depth: 35cm (13.75")

Max Height: 26.5cm (10.5")

