

Antique Stationery Rack, Mahogany, Desk, Correspondence, Asprey London, C.1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6938

This is an antique stationery rack. An English, flame mahogany desk correspondence or letter cabinet by Asprey of London, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Beautifully inlaid correspondence rack
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Select flame mahogany catches the eye with fine grain interest
- Deep russet hues to the wax polish finish
- Boxwood inlay decorates the finely figured top with scallop shell motif
- Arranged as five letter racks over lower recess
- Striking inverse demi-lune form an appealing touch
- Stood upon a continuous plinth base
- Maker's mark to rear reads Asprey, London

This is a nicely presented antique stationery rack from the renowned Asprey of London. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the desk top or sideboard.

Search London Fine for #18.6938 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 34cm (13.5")
- Max Depth: 20.5cm (8")
- Max Height: 29.5cm (11.5")
- Rack Width: 6.5cm (2.5")
- Rack Depth: 13.5cm (5.25")
- Rack Height: 21.5cm (8.5")

