

Vintage Instrument Set, German, Technical Drawing, Riefler, Munich, Circa 1950

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6901

This is a vintage instrument set. A German, silver nickel 'A12' technical drawing set by Riefler of Munich, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1950.

- 10 piece draughtsman's compendium
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Silver nickel instruments with appealing tones
- Presented within velour-lined carry case
- The set offers a compass, drop bow compass and accessories
- Beam compass add-on for extra precision
- Also offering a ruling pen and small canister of graphite tips
- Fabric jotter cloth with wonderful remnants of previous use
- The presentation case dressed with textured finish
- Case lid displays the large Riefler logo and the set number 'A2' beneath
- The reverse annotated with 'Germany' in gold tooling

Search London Fine for #18.6901 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 22cm (8.75")

Max Depth: 8cm (3.25")

Max Height: 2.5cm (1")

LIST PRICE

£325.00

