

Large Antique Steamer Chest, English, Canvas, Travel Trunk, Drawco, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6953

This is a large antique steamer chest. An English, canvas bound travel trunk with Drawco patent steel, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Generously sized trunk from the golden age of voyages
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Wooden frame with durable black textured fascia
- Crafted with Drawco steel hoops for a dependable, lightweight trunk
- Decorated with colourful, period transit labels
- Dressed with brass hardware for the lock escutcheon and clasps
- Sliding lock mechanism with key
- Maker's mark for Drawco features above the central clasp
- The interior finished with a light textile and striking pinstripe pattern
- Adorned with globe-trotting travel labels from Cairo to Cheadle Hulme
- Great Eastern Railway memorandum dated to 1911

Search London Fine for #18.6953, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 92cm (36.25")

Max Depth: 53.5cm (21")

Max Height: 31.5cm (12.5")

