

Antique Stag Bronze, French, Deer, Elk, Prosper LeCourtier, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7003

This is an antique stag bronze. A French, study of a deer or male elk and signed by the artist Prosper LeCourtier (1851-1924), dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Fascinating natural study in Bronze
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Pleasingly weathered bronze in very good order
- Presented upon a black marble plinth
- Superb stag antlers a testament to the craftsmanship
- The elk depicted traversing a craggy outcrop
- Fine detail to the face and fur
- Nicely weighted at 4.6kg (10.1lb)
- Sculptor's name to the front - P. LeCourtier
- LeCourtier studied under renowned French sculptor Emmanuel Frémiet
- A regular exhibitor, his highest achievement was 1st class medal at the 1902 Paris salon

Search London Fine for #18.7003, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 28cm (11")

Max Depth: 11cm (4.25")

Max Height: 30.5cm (12")

