

Vintage Draughtsman's Set, Swiss, Steel, Drawing Instrument, Wild Heerbrugg

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6798

This is a vintage draughtsman's set. A Swiss, chromium steel drawing instrument case by Wild Heerbrugg, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1970.

- Superb precision throughout
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Chromium steel and aluminium instruments in exquisite condition
- Presented within a pressed steel case of high quality and crackle paint finish
- Supremely comprehensive case of 24 pieces
- Presented against a deep black velvet lining
- A quartet of divider compass, engraved with the Wild Heerbrugg mark
- 3 ruling pens and bow compass alongside accessory pieces

This is a fantastic vintage draughtsman's set, by the precision Swiss maker Wild Heerbrugg. Of admirable quality, this is a set that offers as much now as it did 50 years ago. Ideally suited to gracing a study desk or collection, delivered polished and ready to be enjoyed.

Search London Fine for #18.6798, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 29cm (11.5")

Max Depth: 15.5cm (6")

Max Height: 2cm (.75")

