

Antique High Wing-Back Settee, English, Sofa, Love Seat, Edwardian, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6833

This is an antique high wing-back settee. An English, upholstered sofa or love seat over a beech frame, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Inviting ivy green hues and attractive wing-back form
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Quality upholstery - some marks and popped buttons - can serve 'as is' or would be a fine candidate for recovering
- Beech frame and legs show fine grain interest and rich russet hues
- Classic tall back with pleasing hump
- Broad wings buttoned in common with the rear
- With comfortable arms of generous size
- Raised upon four square section legs and united by a wide stretcher
- Pleasing form to the whole - with a charmingly feline look from the rear

This is a superb antique wing-back settee with a appealing high back and comfortable seating for two. Ready to be enjoyed, this sofa would also be a fine candidate for reupholstering to taste. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home
