DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7038

This is an antique fireside screen. An English, ebonised mahogany and glass panel with needlepoint tapestry screen, dating to the Regency period, circa 1830.

- Alluring visual appeal for the fireside
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Ebonised mahogany frame offers deep tones beneath the wax polish finish
- Embroidered panel presented behind glass in good order
- Sinuous frame with scrolled details along the gently rolled edges
- The tapestry presenting a large foliate bouquet with colourful palette
- Emanating from a baluster urn, the bountiful foliage cascades outwards
  - Turned baluster support rising from a gilt foliate bulb, boldly decorated with contrasted fluting
  - Dashing tri-form base with inlaid gilt banding and squat finials to each knee
  - Standing upon broad turnip feet beneath gilt circular knees
