

Antique Decorative Relief Panel, Continental, Lead, Frieze, Neoclassical, C.1750

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7045

This is an antique decorative relief panel. A Continental, heavy lead frieze with neoclassical taste, dating to the mid 18th century, circa 1750.

- Fascinatingly antique decorative piece
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with wonderfully weathered appearance
- The lead is an array of natural graphite hues
- Reassuringly heavy at 22kg (48.5lb)
- Decorated with imagery redolent of the lost city of Atlantis
- Neoclassical relief carvings of mermaids and water fountains
- Replete with circular mounting points for hanging or setting within a larger space

This is an intriguing and captivating antique relief panel. Offering fascinating decorative appeal and reassuringly weighted for lasting display, this panel is sure to add interest to any wall, within a room or outside a residence. Delivered ready to present.

Search London Fine for #18.7045, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 90.5cm (35.75")

Max Depth: 2.5cm (1")

Max Height: 32cm (12.5")

