

Very Large Antique Heriz Carpet, Persian, Room Size, Rug, Edwardian, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7117

This is a very large antique Heriz carpet. A Persian, room-sized rug or covering, dating to the Edwardian period of the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- Of truly impressive size and beautiful hand-woven appeal
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with minimal underfoot wear present - tassels to one end
- The Heriz style crafted in beautiful crimson, deep blue and mellow cream hues
- Large central medallion with motif to each corner a hallmark of this region
 - The ground in warm, inviting cream around which tramline borders and scrolled patterns lay
 - Large central medallion with dark blue petals and smaller crimson and light blue flowers
 - Double border patterns, in crimson and dark blue respectively and decorated with foliate motif
 - Striking triangular corners with a smaller repeat of the central medallion
- In good condition, a professional clean will enhance the appeal even further
- Of room size at 17.5' by 10.8' this carpet holds appeal to interior designers and set dressers

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 535cm (210.75")

Max Depth: 329cm (129.5")

Max Height: 1cm (.5")

- A high-quality statement piece to enrich any large room

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

Search London Fine for #18.7117, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village

The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.