

Antique Fireside Companion, English, Gilt Brass, Fireplace, Stand, Grenadier

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7182

This is an antique fireside companion. An English, gilt brass fireplace stand in the form of a Grenadier guard with poker, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900.

- Appealing finish to brighten the fireside
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with shimmering tones
- Polished Gilt brass offers warm golden hues
- Natural horse hair to the decorative plume
- Tall, proud Grenadier guard resplendent in dress uniform
- Fireplace poker rest within the guard's hat – removable for use
- Outstretched left hand resting casually against his sword
- Fine detail to the chest and uniform, with a cloak draped across his shoulders
- Stood upon a thick hexagonal base, the whole weighing 12.3kg (27.11lb)
- Relief rear offering a view of the slender poker
- Stamped with 'Made in England' to the right-hand side

Search London Fine for #18.7182 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 26cm (10.25")

Max Depth: 21.5cm (8.5")

Max Height: 78.5cm (31")

Poker Height: 56.5cm (22.25")

