

Pair Of, Antique Shield Back Chairs, Scottish, Oak, Hall Seat, Victorian, C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7195

This is a pair of antique shield back chairs. A Scottish, oak hall seat of superb quality, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Magnificent chairs with appealing carved details
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - lovingly cared for examples
- Scottish oak beams with rich caramel hues
- Fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays fascinate beneath the wax polish finish
- The elaborate shield back evoking heraldic themes
- Graceful, sinuous carvings exude strength and deftness by way of chamfered edges
- Scrolled leaf motif frames a central lozenge with pierced back splats
- Shaped seat pad at a comfortable height of 43.5cm (17.25")
- Sash aprons of superb figuring unite the legs in elegant fashion
- Dashing shield carvings decorate the front knees
- Serpentine cabriole legs to the front terminate with exemplary lion's paw feet

Search London Fine for #18.7195 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 44cm (17.25")
 Max Depth: 45cm (17.75")
 Max Height: 94.5cm (37.25")
 Seat Width: 44cm (17.25")
 Seat Depth: 36.5cm (14.25")
 Seat Height: 43.5cm (17.25")

LIST PRICE

£2,450.00

