

Pair Of, Antique Buckle Back Chairs, English, Walnut, Dining, Side, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6857

This is a pair of antique buckle back chairs. An English, walnut dining or side seat, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Wonderful early Victorian craftsmanship
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Select walnut shows fine grain interest and deep russet hues
- Benefiting from a later, quality sprung reupholstering
 - Sinuous top rail with gently chamfered edges resides over a delightfully pinched waist
- Carved lower rail with pierced knot motif to centre
- Traditionally stuffed, generous seat for comfortable dining
- Striking foliate textile covering with appealing colours upon a black ground
- Superb, turned octagonal baluster knees dare to fascinate
- Raised upon a pair of tall peg feet to the front
- Gently splayed rear legs with square section toe

Search London Fine for #18.6857 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 49.5cm (19.5")
- Max Depth: 55.5cm (21.75")
- Max Height: 86.5cm (34")
- Seat Width: 49.5cm (19.5")
- Seat Depth: 45.5cm (18")
- Seat Height: 48.5cm (19")

