

Antique Afternoon Tea Service, English, Pearline, Party, Davidson, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7142

This is an antique afternoon tea service. An English, glass Pearline tea party set by Davidson, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Radiant serving set with striking blue glass
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and free of marks
- Pearline glass displays the distinctive white tips - a reaction to residual heat during the cooling process
- Sinuous curved forms and cut bases catch the eye
- Comprehensive afternoon tea service comprising 6 pieces
- Two serving bowls with the Brideshead pattern - so named by American collectors
- Also offering a pouring jug and bon-bon tray, again of Brideshead form
- Pair of ornate basket shaped bowls with flowing decorative shape

This is a delightful antique afternoon tea service, with the highly distinctive blue Pearline glass offering a charming appearance. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy or display.
