

Victorian Pine Chest of Drawers, c.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1328 This is an antique, Victorian pine chest of drawers dating to c.1900. The cabinetry is in an attractive, mellow, satin pine, the chest raised on a plinth base with serpentine bracketing to the front. The deep, dove tailed, drawers are arranged in a two over two configuration showing few knots, a stepped edge detail and dressed with later pierced brass drop handles and quatrefoil lock escutcheons. The top is in good order and edged with a simple moulding in keeping with the modest simplicity of this piece. An attractive chest of good quality, solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
