

Victorian Mahogany Chest of Drawers, c.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1332 This is an antique, mahogany chest of drawers dating to c.1880. A super example of its type, this chest is in good order throughout and displays rich, russet tones in the mahogany and good grain detail on all sides. Beneath the top, the frieze is book matched in flame mahogany adding interest and proportion over the 'two over three' drawer configuration with the bottom, 'jumper drawer' generous in depth. The cabinet raised on attractive 'honey pot', cup and cover turned feet. The drawers are well constructed with cock beading, dove tail joints, original turned pulls in a complimentary dark finish and brass keyhole linings. The brass locks are present but the key absent. A delightful mid-sized chest of drawers with solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
