DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7075

This is a tall vintage table lamp. An English, walnut and silver-plated side or occasional light, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Add a dash of practical elegance to the corner of the room
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - burnished silver plate with decades of careful polishing
- Silverplate beams with bright tones and hints of golden tarnishing
- Stout walnut base displays fine grain interest and pleasing russet hues
- Classically attractive, quality lampshade with tapering form and serpentine bow seams
- Foliate pattern with great detail, enhanced with light golden tassels to edges
- Raised upon a turned baluster column with an appealing tapered octagonal form
- Circular plinth with turned finish mounted to a deep walnut base
- Supplied with a generous length of quality cable and British Standards compliant bayonet-type light bulb

This is a desirable vintage table lamp, with a bright finish to the burnished silver plating beneath a quality shade. Delivered polished and ready for the home
