

Ornate Antique Mirror, French, Giltwood, Hall, Overmantel, Edwardian, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7198

This is an ornate antique mirror. A French, giltwood and glass hall or overmantel mirror, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Profusely detailed frame adds copious decorative appeal
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - frame in good order commensurate with age
- Deep golden tones to the giltwood frame catch the light
- Mirror plate displays a sought after light foxing and offers a clear, bright image
- The pierced scallop frame with multiples of shell motif and issuing scrolled detail
- Foliate border to the plate edge with continuous sash detail
- Superb bevelled glass offers a clear, sharp reflection
- Ready to impress upon the wall with mounting wire to rear

This is a dashing antique mirror, with striking French charm and detail to the frame. Offering a quality reflection to its bevelled mirror plate. Delivered polished and ready to hang.

Search London Fine for #18.7198 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 61cm (24")

Max Depth: 3cm (1.25")

Max Height: 72.5cm (28.5")

Mirror Plate Width: 39cm (15.25")

Mirror Plate Height: 49cm (19.25")

