

Antique Desktop Watchmaker's Lathe, Swiss, Brass, Jacot, Craftsman's Tool, 1920

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7267

This is an antique desktop watchmaker's lathe. A Swiss, brass and steel jacot craftsman's tool, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Fascinating, boxed precision desktop instrument
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with wear to box commensurate with age
- Brass lathe shows appealing aged burnish and mellow golden hues
- Case dressed with a deep midnight blue velvet lining and small brass swivel clasps
- Four accessory pieces including a small measuring rule
- Maker's mark engraved to the lathe reads DLPP with a star and crescent emblem
- Wonderfully patinated lid with the faint inscription 'Tour a Pivoter a vis de Rapparel Qualite Superieure'

This is a delightful antique desktop watchmaker's lathe with wonderfully aged charm and appeal. Delivered ready for the collector.

Search London Fine for #18.7267, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 25cm (9.75")
 Max Depth: 12.5cm (5")
 Max Height: 3cm (1.25")
 Lathe Width: 21cm (8.25")
 Lathe Depth: 2cm (.75")
 Lathe Height: 7.5cm (3")

