

Antique 2 Seat Sofa, French, Textile, Beech, Settee, Lounge, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7317

This is an antique 2-seat sofa. A French, textile and beech lounge settee, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Lasting comfort with traditionally stuffed cushions
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - can be enjoyed as is or recovered to taste
- Quality upholstery showing signs of gentle family wear - one small ink mark present under cushion
- Solid beech frame replete with attractive gilt finish offering warm hues
- Low double camel back promotes relaxed reclining
- Feather-stuffed seat cushions with additional lumbar pillows
- Deep, rolled sofa arms with pleated detail and piping
- Deep pink brocade trim adds further detail to the whole
- Sash lower rail with serpentine forms and plume of feathers shield motif
- Raised upon five short cabriole legs with pronounced scrolled toes
 - Companion pieces 18.7318 and 18.7319 also available and fine candidates for reupholstering to taste

Search London Fine for #18.7317 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 180cm (70.75")
- Max Depth: 86cm (33.75")
- Max Height: 83cm (32.75")
- Seat Width: 127.5cm (50.25")
- Seat Depth: 58cm (22.75")
- Seat Height: 50cm (19.75")

