

Superb Antique Corner Cabinet, English, Oak, Mahogany, Inlay, Cupboard, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7206

This is a superb antique corner wall cabinet. An English, oak, mahogany and boxwood inlaid cupboard, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780.

- Stunning figuring and rich colour set the tone
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Select oak with fine grain interest and blooms of medullary rays
- Quality boxwood inlay decorates the generously sized cabinet door
- Broad crown moulding resides above the whole with contrasting oak frieze panels below
- Cockbeaded field panel door, dressed with a small brass pull and inset lock – key absent
- Ecclesiastical boxwood inlay with prominent spire above an outlined minaret form
- Eye-catching conch shell inlay to the centre with wonderful tone and hues
- Select mahogany marquetry offers deeper russet hues of fine distinction
- The useful interior arranged as three bow-front shelves of sinuous form
 - Single small drawer with supplementary faux drawers to the base, with rich mahogany fascia
