

Antique Gazak Rug, Middle Eastern, Nomadic, Tribal, Decorative Carpet, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7233

This is an antique Gazak rug. A Middle Eastern, nomadic tribal woven decorative carpet, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900.

- Great colour and of near-square size at 119cm x 131cm (46.75" x 51.5")
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with minimal fading and in good original order
- Wonderfully decorated with bold diamond geometric patterns, a hallmark of the nomadic Gazak rug
- Tightly woven in durable wools and kilim, this attractive rug is well suited to the entrance hall
- Bright colour palette with unusual orange, purple and green diamonds accentuated with deep pink
- Half diamond tramline border to each side, with an outer checkerboard pattern
- Finished with bands of loose, medium length tassels to either end

This is an appealing antique Gazak rug, with hard-wearing nomadic charm delivered by an eye-catching regional appreciation of colour and patterns. Sure to brighten any reception hall or living room, this attractive rug is delivered ready to be laid.
