

Large Vintage Decorative Rug, Belgian, Carpet, Ghiordes, Prayer Mat, Circa 1970

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7234

This is a large vintage decorative rug. A Belgian, quality woven lounge carpet in the manner of Ghiordes prayer mats, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970.

- Striking decorations and of near Dozar proportion at 91cm x 193cm (35.75" x 76")
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with minor signs of wear or fade - slight loss to tassels
- Tightly woven to a high standard and accentuated with copious fascinations in attractive hues
- Offers a comfortable underfoot feel suitable for the entrance hall or living room
- Pair of large, profusely detailed Mirhab to the central field, framed by repeating lozenge patterns
- Tramline borders of sawtooth patterns arranged as directional arrows catch the eye
- Outer border with checkerboard bands and unusual animal forms
- Finished with a small band of tight, short tassels to one end
- Charming vintage maker's label for Louis De Poortreere of Belgium to rear

This is an attractive vintage decorative rug, a quality Belgian homage to the wonderful carpets of the Ghiordes region. Dashing patterns attract the eye, whilst the tightly woven pile invites use. Delivered ready to display.
