DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7145
This is an antique dresser. An English, oak sideboard cabinet with Jacobean revival taste, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Large Victorian dresser in Jacobean taste
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Select oak shows dark russet hues beneath a wax polish finish
- Graced with fine grain interest throughout
- A wide crown moulding sits prominently over the whole
- Gallery to centre dressed with a sash apron and flanked by a pair of cabinet doors
- Field panels an eye-catching flourish to each door, dressed with shaped drop handle pulls over pierced escutcheons
- Inset, working locks to each door – keys present
- The generously sized base arranged as a pair of cabinet with two drawers to centre
- Heavy drop pendant pulls dress the drawer fronts within dashing field panels
- Supported upon fascinating barley twist legs - four to the front with two to rear
