

Long 12' 9" Vintage Karajar Runner, Persian, Entrance Hall, Carpet, Circa 1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7218

This is a long vintage Karajar runner. A Persian, woven entrance hall carpet, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Of great length for the hallway at 105cm x 395cm (41.25" x 155.5")
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with historic sun fade and form
- Tightly woven with natural red pile and decorated with a green and gold secondary palette
- Offers a pleasingly comfortable underfoot feel
- Presenting 11 gul or medallions to centre in alternating pattern
- Incidental detail with bird motif and palmette flourishes to the ground
- Continuous geometric borders in cream and dark blue with colourful detail
- Dressed with bands of loose, neat tassels at either end

This is a charming and generously sized vintage Karajar runner, ideal for the longer hallway. Delivered ready to be enjoyed.

Search London Fine for #18.7218, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 105cm (41.25")

Max Depth: 1cm (.5")

Max Height: 395cm (155.5")

LIST PRICE

£1,845.00

