

Edwardian Sliding Glazed Door Bookcase, c.1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1348 This is an antique, Edwardian bookcase dating to c.1910. Beautifully constructed in English oak and displaying good colour and patina in warm tones, this bookcase features a pair of sliding, glazed doors with the original thick gauge, bevelled edge glass. Raised on a continuous plinth the cabinet offers four adjustable shelves beneath a narrow frieze and planked top that over hangs to the rear allowing it to nestle against a wall where a skirting board is present. The doors slide smoothly and close snugly offering a dust free environment within. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
