

Antique Dinner Gong, Oriental, Ebonised Teak Stand, Chinoiserie, Victorian, 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7405

This is an antique dinner gong. An Oriental, ebonised teak stand with Chinoiserie taste hosting a bronze gong, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Elaborately carved stand ideal for the dinner hall - generous 3' tall frame
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Ebonised teak with appealing dark black Chinoiserie finish
- Wonderfully weathered bronze gong with copper tones and hand-beaten appearance
- Ornate, heavily carved surmount prominent above a serpentine frame
- Foliate carvings decorate the upright supports
- Attractive gong offers a muted tone and hangs from a central looped hook
- Striking mallet with soft fabric head and leather hanging loop
- Generously sized recess to hang gongs up to 47.5cm in diameter (18.75")
- Standing upon a pair of block trestle feet with pierced fretwork stretcher uniting the stand

Search London Fine for #18.7405 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 56cm (22")
 Max Depth: 21cm (8.25")
 Max Height: 89.5cm (35.25")
 Gong Diameter: 37cm (14.5")
 Max Opening Diameter: 47.5cm (18.75")

