

Large Antique Dresser Base, Scottish, Oak, Buffet, Server, Late Victorian, 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7433

This is a large antique dresser base. A Scottish, carved oak buffet or server, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Of superb Scottish craftsmanship and impressive proportion
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Quality oak stocks show fine grain interest beneath a wax polish finish
- Graced with caramel hues and wisps of medullary rays
- Deeply tiered top above two wide drawers, each dressed with brass drop handles
- Ovolo shaped drawer boxes with sinuous fascia
 - Drawer interiors present saffron yellow baize linings, repeating throughout the dresser
- Arranged as a central cabinet with a pair of small side cupboards - brass locks, keys absent
- Two generously sized display galleries frame the central cabinet doors
- Decorated with leaf carved shoulders, turned supports and serpentine sash aprons
- Geometric field panels with S-scroll carvings adorn the larger central doors
