

Antique Champagne Cooler, English, Wine, Large, Drinks, Ice Bucket, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7473

This is an antique champagne cooler. An English, cut glass wine bottle or drinks ice bucket, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Superb cut glass cooler of generous proportion
- Displays a desirable aged patina and free of marks
- Strikingly decorated glass offers a clear, bright appearance
- Of sufficient diameter to comfortably host a Jeroboam sized champagne bottle
- Ornate patterns decorate the body, with tactile quilted diamond finish
- Large starburst pattern to base a delightful accompaniment
- Small, scrolled glass handles present a delicate touch to the whole

This is a desirable antique champagne cooler, with generous proportion for keeping treasured bottles on ice. Beautifully cut, the glass catches the light, and they eye. Delivered polished and ready to impress.

Search London Fine for #18.7473 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 31cm (12.25")

Max Depth: 25cm (9.75")

Max Height: 25.5cm (10")

Opening Diameter: 23cm (9")

